

15 October 2013

To whom it may concern:

RE: England Elite Training Squad

The England Rugby League Federation Elite Training Squad has done two training camps in South Africa to date. Universal Travellers assisted with the logistical arrangements, which were hassle free and extremely successful. The services included luxury coach transfers, excursions and hospitality, as well as the continuous management of the tour.

On behalf of Maxxium Sport I want to thank Universal Travellers for their professional and highly effective service. We would definitely recommend their service to any organization interested in booking travel related and hospitality packages.

Regards

Chris Botes
Managing Director: Maxxium Sport